

McLaren Health Care and Elekta mutually terminate long-term agreement

STOCKHOLM, October 11, 2017 – Michigan-based McLaren Health Care and Elekta (EKTA-B.ST) have mutually agreed to terminate their business agreement from December 2013. McLaren Health Care and Elekta will continue their business relationship but on a smaller scale.

In accordance with its process for constant review of backlog, Elekta has therefore determined to reduce USD 72 million of the backlog, to be reported in Q2 fiscal year 2017/18. There will be no material effect on Elekta's results.
