

Invitation to attend a live Elekta Unity treatment at University Hospital Tübingen

Having conducted 1,400 fractions on an Elekta Unity system, Prof. Dr. Zips presents his experience

STOCKHOLM – Elekta (EKTA-B.ST) invites financial analysts and investors to Tübingen on November 29 for an update on the use of Elekta Unity and a better understanding of the clinical possibilities of the MR-Linac.

Based on the delivery of 1,400 fractions and treating almost 100 patients with Elekta Unity, Prof. Dr. Daniel Zips, Medical Director of Department of Radiation Oncology, University Hospital Tübingen & Director of Comprehensive Cancer Center Tübingen-Stuttgart, will present his experience with the MR-Linac. Participants will also view a live treatment fraction using Elekta Unity, with commentary by Prof. Dr. Zips.

In addition, Kevin Brown, Distinguished Scientist at Elekta, will give a scientific update of the latest learnings from Elekta Unity, while CEO, Dr. Richard Hausmann, and CFO, Gustaf Salford, will discuss the company's latest development based on the second quarter report published on November 28.

The invitation is on a first-come, first-served basis, with a limit of 50 participants. If you wish to attend, please register using this link: <http://www.cvent.com/d/qhqldh>
