

Elekta's operations in Italy under investigation for suspected antitrust violations

STOCKHOLM, November 12, 2015 – Italian authorities have today initiated an investigation into some employees of Elekta's Italian operations for suspected antitrust violations.

Elekta General Counsel, Jonas Bolander, said: "Elekta has very clear policies and procedures regarding code of conduct and fair competition. Elekta has zero tolerance toward any deviation of its code of conduct, of which fair competition is one important element."

Elekta is fully cooperating with the Italian authorities.

In fiscal year 2014/15, Italy accounted for 3.5 percent of Elekta's total net sales.
