

ELEKTA INVITES YOU TO ASTRO

Stockholm 3 October 2003

Elekta has the pleasure to invite you to a Capital Markets Day at ASTRO, the American Society for Therapeutic Radiology and Oncology, in Salt Lake City, Utah on Tuesday 21 October 2003.

ASTRO holds a yearly conference and exhibition, which is the most important US event in the oncology field. This 45th annual meeting takes place on October 19-23. Elekta participates with an impressive booth and will introduce many new products and systems.

Elekta's Capital Markets Day will take place on:

Tuesday, 21 October, 9.00am - 1.00pm at:

Wyndham Salt Lake City Hotel
215 West South Temple
Salt Lake City, Utah 84101

In the Cottonwood One Room, Lobby Level

Representatives from Elekta's corporate executive management will make presentations on new products and solutions and the market development. After the presentations and a light luncheon you will be introduced to our booth #702 in the exhibition hall at Salt Palace Convention Center, where all our new products, systems and clinical solutions will be on display. Among the products on display you will find Elekta Synergy™, Leksell Gamma Knife® and Elekta Neuromag™.

If you want to participate, please contact:

Lars Jonsteg, VP Investor Relations, Elekta Inc.
e-mail: lars.jonsteg@elekta.com, tel. +1 770 670-2419 or mobile +46 708 78 37 35

For planning purposes, we need your response no later than Friday 10 October.

Looking forward to see you at ASTRO!

Best regards,
