Invitation to Capital Markets Day at ASTRO on October 5, 10am-1pm EDT

The annual meeting of the American Society for Therapeutic Radiology and Oncology (ASTRO) is the most important clinical meeting and trade show for the radiation oncology industry. Investors who want to get deeper knowledge about the radiation oncology business and the competitive situation are recommended to visit this event which this year is held at The Georgia World Congress Center in Atlanta, GA on October 3-7. Elekta management and application specialists will be available at the Elekta exhibition throughout the whole event.

On October 5, 10am-1pm EDT including lunch, Elekta will arrange a capital markets meeting in the Cottonwood Room at the OMNI Hotel in Atlanta, where Elekta management and specialists will present the development both in the radiotherapy and neurosurgery markets. Special focus will be on the competitive situation within image guided and stereotactic radiotherapy and on the GPO market.

Investors who want to attend this meeting are kindly requested to give notice to Lars Jonsteg, VP Investor Relations North America, e-mail: lars.jonsteg@elekta.com.
